"At First Commonwealth, we're committed to financial empowerment for all," said Terry Grier, Chief Lending Officer at First Commonwealth Federal Credit Union. "By partnering with Upstart, we can leverage AI-powered credit decisioning to lend more inclusively—helping more low- and moderate-income borrowers access the funds they need while connecting them with our Certified Credit Union Financial Counselors for personalized financial guidance."

As an Upstart Referral Network lending partner since December 2024, First Commonwealth can now provide eligible personal loan applicants on Upstart.com with tailored loan offers. Qualified applicants seamlessly transition into a First Commonwealth-branded experience to complete the online membership application and closing process. Through Upstart APIs, new member and loan data integrate into First Commonwealth's core banking platform—ensuring a seamless member onboarding process and enhancing opportunities to serve members beyond their initial loan needs.

"We are excited to welcome First Commonwealth to the family of Upstart lending partners," said Michael Lock, Senior Vice President of Lending Partnerships at Upstart. "By being part of the Upstart Referral Network, First Commonwealth is expanding access to affordable credit to more creditworthy borrowers through personal lending and their financial counseling programs."
