“At DuPage Credit Union, our focus is helping our members build strong financial futures and achieve lasting financial well-being,” said Jason DeGarmo, Chief Lending Officer at DuPage Credit Union. “And that begins with a seamless lending experience. With Upstart, we are able to reach prospective members through an easy application process and seamless onboarding. This creates an opportunity to expand and enrich their relationship with the Credit Union beyond the personal loan.”

DuPage Credit Union started lending as a partner with Upstart in January 2026 to expand its personal lending program. On Upstart.com, qualified personal loan applicants who meet DuPage Credit Union’s credit policies receive tailored offers as they transition into a DuPage Credit Union-branded experience to complete the online membership application and closing process.

“We’re excited to welcome DuPage Credit Union to the family of Upstart lending partners,” said Ed Walters, Vice President of Lending Partnerships at Upstart. “Through its partnership with Upstart, DuPage Credit Union can reach more qualified borrowers, grow personal loan volume, and introduce new members to the Credit Union through a seamless digital experience.”
