“Four Corners Community Bank is always looking for innovative ways to compete in a digital world in the consumer lending space,” said President and CEO, Sheila Mathews.

“With their AI technology, Upstart offers a great solution that will allow us to improve the customer experience by increasing the efficiency and availability of consumer credit.”

As a new Upstart lending partner since July, Four Corners Community Bank will be using Upstart on its bank website to directly provide AI-powered personal loans. In addition, Four Corners Community Bank will be part of the Upstart Referral Network. Through this network, qualified personal loan applicants on Upstart.com, who meet Four Corners Community Bank’s credit policies, receive tailored offers as they seamlessly transition into a Four Corners Community Bank-branded experience to complete the online application and closing process.

“We are excited to partner with Four Corners Community Bank to deliver a more automated, digital experience to their customers and the local communities they serve,” said Michael Lock, SVP of Lending Partnerships for Upstart. “Upstart’s AI lending platform will help Four Corners Community Bank reach and provide access to affordable credit to more consumers. ”
